The Honorable John McCone, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McCone:

Another anniversary for boy scouting -- the 55th -- has rolled around. During the annual observance of Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, we present to the nation's capital's most important people, the boy scout emblem to be worn during scouting week as a tribute to the great scout movement.

If you can set aside a few minutes of your most valuable time, preferably between February 8th and 12th, a cub scout would like to personally present you with this scout emblem. It is a great experience for the cub scout, and I know it would be important to you.

If you can work this in, would you please have your secretary call my Bethesda office (OLiver 6-9277) and we will arrange a time that is convenient for you.

The cub scout that will make your presentation is [redacted] age 10, of Pack 440. He lives at [redacted] [redacted] will be accompanied by his parents, District Chairlady Mrs. Fred Plitt, and myself.
